

Community Perspectives on the Politics of the Zimmerman Murals

Sponsored by the Ortiz Center

Mon, February 19, 2018
5:00-7:00 pm, 105 Hibben Center reception, panel presentation and discussion

Please join us for a stimulating discussion of the Zimmerman Library Murals (by Kenneth Adams) with representatives from earlier eras of campus controversy and today's student leaders. University and community leaders from the 1970s, 1990s, and now will discuss their experiences and continuing concerns around the murals. Their insights provide historical and contemporary perspectives for today's efforts to address the murals.

Moderator

Michael Trujillo

Associate Professor, Chicano/a Studies,
American Studies

Joaquin Arquello

community social worker
Student artist and activist, 1990s

Moises Gonzales, Associate Professor
School of Architecture and Planning
Student activist, 1990s

Joshua Heckman

graduate student in American Studies
MEChA representative

Neri Holguin

political consultant
Student activist, 1990s

Jennifer Marley

undergraduate student in Native American Studies
KIVA Club Vice President

Beva Sanchez-Padilla

Field Organizer-Feminisms, Southwest
Organizing Project (SWOP)
Student activist, 1970s

Alfonso Ortiz Center
for Intercultural Studies

This event is free and open to the public